

Results of Stockholm meeting on EGC planning grant proposals

No.	Applicant	Title of project
008	Dita Vogel, Hamburg vogel@hwwi.org	Irregular migration in times of global economic crisis – perceptions and realities in Europe, Africa, Latin-America and Asia
028	James Hampshire, Brighton J.A.Hampshire@sussex.ac.uk	Migration to Europe in the Digital Age (MEDiA)
031	Ferruccio Pastore, Torino fieri@fieri.it und tomasi@fieri.it	Managing Migration in a Time of Crisis (and beyond): Which Role for the EU?

Results of Stockholm meeting on EGC planning grant proposals

No.	Applicant	Title of project
039	Sonya Michel, Washington, DC Sonya.Michel@wilsoncenter.org	The EU, North America and the Challenge of Global Policymaking for Social Care
055	Mark Hallerberg, Berlin hallerberg@hertie-school.org	The Challenge of Asset Market-Oriented Fiscal Policy: National Fiscal Policies in a Global Financial System
057	Antje Wiener, Hamburg antje.wiener@wiso.uni-hamburg.de	Contested Norms on the High Seas: Europe as a Global Actor in the Fisheries Sector
081	Doris Fuchs, Münster fuchs@uni-muenster.de	Agrifood Crises in the 21st Century: The Sustainability Challenge
108	Thorsten Benner, Berlin gppi@gppi.net	Joint stakeholders in Global Energy Governance? – Prospects for Joint Global Problem-solving between the EU and China
111	Eva Gross, Brussels eva.gross@vub.ac.be	The EU and the Emerging Powers: Addressing Global Challenges and Improving the EU's Global Standing

Results of Stockholm meeting on EGC planning grant proposals

No.	Applicant	Title of project
119	Alexander Kelle, Bath a.kelle@bath.ac.uk	Europe and the Global Challenge of Biological Controls
124	Bates Gill, Solna director@sipri.org	A "Networked Think Tank" on Europe and Global Challenges: Generating a Common Language and a Shared Knowledge Base on Controlling the Movement of Sensitive Goods and Technologies
128	Giovanni B. Andornino, Turin giovanni.andornino@unito.it	Engineering a global framework for Europe's strategic policy-making. "Effective multilateralism" for the governance of a multipolar world